

RIOTING IN COLORADO. NEWSPAPER MAN SHOT.

TREETS OF VICTOR

Crowded With Excited Throngs—Awful Night Is Expected By All.

Miners Are Entertained Now

Entire Town Will Be in Ashes Before Morning

and Last Night's Riot Reach Fifteen—Situation Most Desperate.

Victor, Colo. June 7.—After a night of terror comparative peace has returned to this great gold town today, but conditions are still so chaotic that nobody believes that the trouble is yet ended. On deaths have resulted from the dynamite outrage at Independence. Several of the injured are in a bad condition. Two men were killed and eight wounded in the subsequent rioting in Victor. Following are the casualties at Victor.

thoroughly organized vigilance committee, composed of mine owners, employees and sympathizers has been in charge of the government of the town, and the regular squads of men are patrolling the district. Men are acting under orders of Sheriff Bell the new sheriff, who is the property owner and an out-stander of the miners' union. Henry M. Robertson has been under compulsion. He was taken to the headquarters of the owners association, and his resignation demanded. At first, he refused to resign, but, when finally, a rope was thrown at his feet, he signed the resignation which had been provided for him by the union. Sheriff Bell was to act the star of Sheriff J. Burton. He then appointed 25 men, to which force large additions have since been made, and later he had the union officers who had been appointed by City Marshal Mich. Connell, of Victor. Meantime he had visited the mine owners' quarters in which 30 armed men were assembled and demanded that they surrender their arms to him. He was ejected, and after being ejected from office by Mayor French is placed under arrest. Many of the regularly chosen peace officers of the various towns in the district have also been deposed and some are locked up with about 200 miners who were arrested after rioting in Victor. The sentiment of mine owners, as voiced by C. E. Smith, secretary of the association at all union miners must be out of the camp. His declaration that the time had come to "purge the district" started the rioting at the meeting in Victor called to discuss the dynamite outrage at Independence.

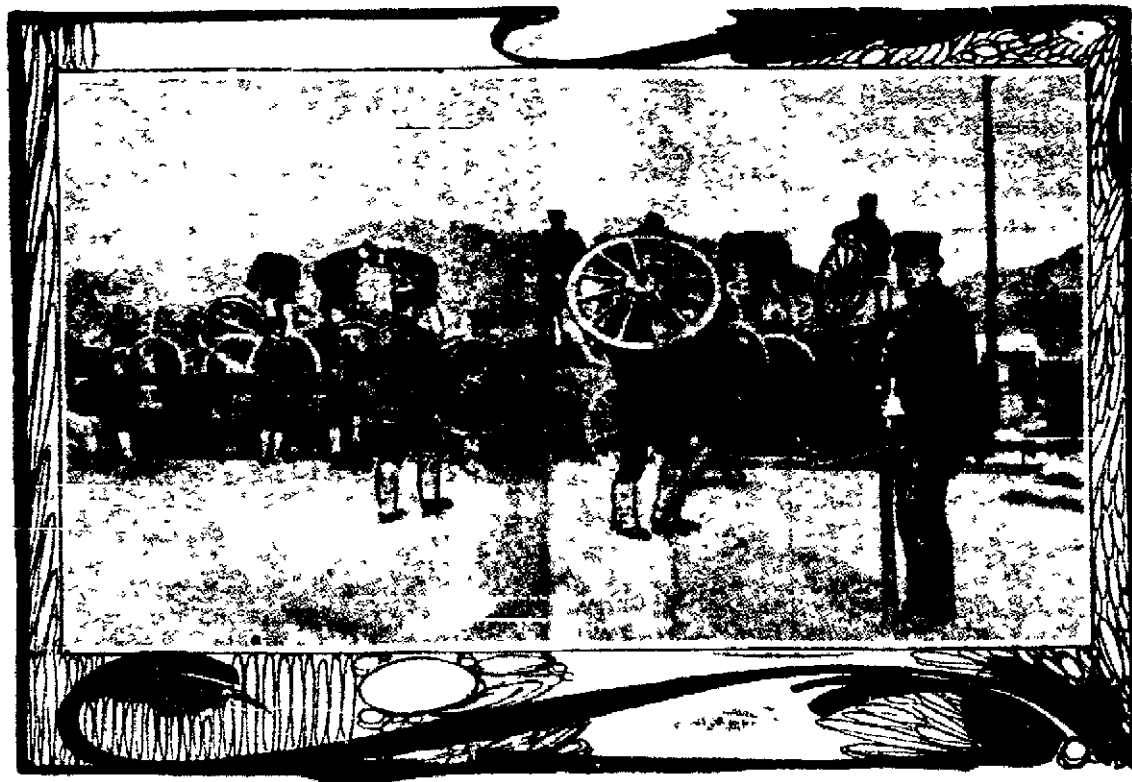

The Rioting Started.
Up to you to drive these scoundrels out," Hamilton had declared upon Alf Miller, a union man who had been sworn in as deputy sheriff. He raised his rifle and inquired on are you referring to?" Miller's rifle was seized and the firing began which resulted in the death of Roxie McGee, a non-union man, and the wounding of six other men. One of whom, John Davis, a non-union miner, died a few days later. The first shot was fired from one of the windows of the mine building immediately by two rifles from windows of the mine building. A man standing in the doorway of the union store, it is said, also

ALL NIGHT
The Streets of Victor Were Crowded With Excited Throngs.

Victor, Colo. June 7.—Although excitement was at a high pitch during the night no sensational incidents occurred. From dark till dawn, the principal streets were almost as crowded as they were during the day, by thousands of men and women who had assembled from all parts of the county in the belief that darkness would invite further bloodshed. Their expectations, however, proved to be groundless.

Aside from the occasional arrest of a union agitator by the military authorities or the sheriff's deputies and the occasional strike of a rifle from some dark, secluded spot in the foot hills the night passed off quietly. All night however, the streets of the city and foot paths leading to and from the mines were watched closely by the troops and the deputies and every few minutes a miner was brought in and placed in the armory, which is under heavy military guard. The dynamite was cast far and wide and more than 150 union men, said to be the leaders of the riot of yesterday, are now lounging about on the sidewalks.

RAILROADING ARTILLERY TO KUROKI'S ARMY

The Japanese artillery seems to have reached a stage of perfectness almost equal to that of the German and French armies—certainly the two best equipped artillery forces in the world. General Kuroki has taken with him a supply of mountain batteries and quick-firing guns which far outnumber and undoubtedly much surpass any that his enemy can concentrate at the point of action. The Japanese artilleryman is built almost on ideal lines for such work. He is short, well limbed, yet clean cut, and has a natural aptitude for machinery which makes every man able to care for the intricate mechanism of modern high-power guns. The flat cars in use on the temporary roadway laid by the Japanese, north of Seoul, are American discards and used to carry coal and iron from New York, Baltimore and Philadelphia to the west.

ENGINEERS WILL FINISH

Their Session's Today. Many Important Actions Taken By This Conservative Body.

Los Angeles, June 7.—The 6th biennial convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers probably will conclude its sessions today. The convention has been particularly important in having taken such actions as the following:

Revision of constitution and by laws enlarging the grand officership, and clothing officers with greater power. The election of officers was completed today with the election of T. H. Hiner to be third grand assistant engineer. He represents division 2, Memphis, Tennessee. Nothing remarkable before the convention but the clearing up of odds and ends of delayed business. Many of the delegates will depart for their homes today.

SERVICE CRIPPLED.

New York, June 7.—The Commercial Cable Co. sends out the following notice: "We are advised that the Nagasaki-Fusan cable is interrupted."

AMERICAN WAS FAVORITE.

Jimmy Walsh, of Boston, Proved Better Than Digger Stanley of England.

New York, June 7.—At the National Sporting club last night there has been a well fought boxing contest for $1500 between bantam weights Jimmy Walsh, of Boston, and Digger Stanley, of England, says an American dispatch from London. They boxed 15 rounds at 112 pounds to a draw. Despite the American's failure a month ago against the same opponent, he was favorite and much money was bet on him at four to five. Walsh's weight was 111½ pounds, while Stanley tipped the beam at 116.

The fight commenced at a very warm pace with the Englishman much faster than his opponent. He took a slight lead for the first half dozen rounds, but the Bostonian improved and at the eleventh round scored quicker than Stanley. In the twelfth round Walsh's rib punches had great effect on the Englishman.

FILED AN AMENDED BILL.

Trenton, N. J., June 7.—Counsel for Edward H. Harriman and Winslow S. Pierce has filed in the United States circuit court a second amended bill to the suit brought by them to restrain the carrying out of the proposed pro rata plan of distribution of the assets of the Northern Securities Co.

HUNT

Is Being Made to Discover

Owner of Gun

With Which Young Was Shot.

Detectives Believe That Will Establish Who Committed the Crime.

Deckhand Is Reported to Have Told a Story of Selling His Revolver to Strange Man Just Before Shooting.

New York, June 7.—Detectives at work on the shooting of Bookmaker Frank T. Young which occurred in a cab here last Saturday, are slowly tracing the history of the revolver which caused the horseman's death. Around the owners of the weapon may revolve a solution of the whole affair. Young's friends all assert that he never carried a pistol and the intimates of Nan Patterson, who was with Young in the cab, declare she had a horror of weapons.

Some progress has been made in tracing the revolver—enough to indicate that it may have been purchased in San Francisco. It was manufactured in Springfield, Mass., bore the factory number 75050, was purchased by a man here and sold by them in 1898 or in 1899. The firm's records for those years have been destroyed, but the dealers express the belief that the revolver was among a lot shipped to San Francisco. If this should prove true the owner of the fatal weapon may be identified, as four of the persons directly connected with the tragedy are well known in San Francisco.

A strict search of pawnshops has failed to develop any information which would lead to the belief that the revolver was purchased in this city, and the detectives are hopeful that a valuable clue may be obtained in California.

James Dooley, a deckhand is reported as having told a strange story regarding the sale of his revolver to a stranger in west Broadway near the scene of the shooting, a short time before Young and Mrs. Patterson were known to have been there. He asserts the man treated him several times in a saloon and upon learning he had a weapon, purchased it saying he wanted to shoot a woman. Little credence is placed in the story.

IMPORTANT CHANGES IN

Management of Harvard University Athletics Announced to Students by President.

Cambridge, Mass., June 7.—Notice of important and sweeping changes in the management of Harvard University athletics has been given to the under graduate managers by Prof. S. H. White, chairman of the Harvard athletic committee. The Varsity crew and the track team must raise the funds necessary for their expenses, bare ball and foot ball must support themselves out of gate receipts, the promoters of minor sports and all freshman teams must raise all their money themselves or else not be allowed to compete, and in case of any deficit games cannot be played. Professional coaches will be employed for the foot ball and track teams only and the managers must retrench in the matter of sweaters, numerals, medals, cups and other prizes.

The reason given for the new rules is that the construction of the new stadium in soldier field has placed the committee in debt to amount of $70,000.

CONDITION NOT SERIOUS.

Consuelo Has Practically Recovered From What Was Considered Serious Heart Affliction.

London, June 7.—Consuelo, the Dowager Duchess of Manchester, who it was reported in the United States was seriously ill with an affection of the heart, has been ill in London, but there has been no indication that her condition was critical. She has practically recovered from her indisposition, and yesterday went to Fulwell Park, Twickenham, which she has rented for the summer. The Duke and Duchess of Manchester left London yesterday for Ireland.

MURPHY LANDS.

Washington, June 7.—Dominic J. Murphy, commissioner of pensions under Cleveland, today, was elected by the Panama canal commissioner as secretary of that body.

MANY DELEGATES PRESENT.

St. Louis, June 7.—More than 200 delegates are attending the 17th annual convention of the National Association of Steam and Hot Water Fitters and Pipefitters Union, in session here. The address of welcome was delivered by Chairman John T. Hunt, of Missouri, said to be the only member of congress who carries a union card.

CHINESE SOLDIERS

Charged With Killing an American Near the Scenes of Conflict.

U. S. Consul Is Investigating.

Report of Sinking of a Russian Gunboat by a Japanese Torpedo, Off Port Arthur Is Confirmed—Russians Charged With Having Poisoned Water at Taku Kao.

NEW CHWANG, JUNE 7.—1 P. M.—UNITED STATES CONSUL GENERAL MILLER HAS LEFT HERE BY SPECIAL TRAIN FOR THE SCENE OF THE KILLING OF LEWIS ETZEL OF BUTLER, PA. CORRESPONDENT OF THE LONDON DAILY TELEGRAPH, WHO WAS SHOT BY CHINESE SOLDIERS BETWEEN SHWANTAIZE AND ERDIKO. THE CONSUL WILL MAKE A PERSONAL INVESTIGATION OF THE DEATH OF MR. ETZEL.

BUTLER, PA., JUNE 7.—LOUIS ETZEL, REPORTED TO HAVE BEEN KILLED BY CHINESE SOLDIERS, IS BELIEVED TO HAVE BEEN A SON OF GABRIEL ETZEL, FORMERLY A PROSPEROUS BUSINESS MAN OF THIS TOWN. THE FAMILY MOVED FROM HERE SEVERAL YEARS AGO AND IT IS THOUGHT SETTLED IN COLORADO.

DENVER, JUNE 7.—ANNA B. ETZEL, A STENOGRAPHER, LIVING IN THIS CITY WITH HER MOTHER AND SISTER, RECEIVED A CABLEGRAM TODAY ANNOUNCING THE DEATH OF HER BROTHER, LEWIS ETZEL, A NEWSPAPER CORRESPONDENT WHO WAS FIRED ON IN A JUNK AND KILLED BY CHINESE SOLDIERS.

LEWIS ETZEL WAS THE SON OF GABRIEL ETZEL, WHO DIED SEVERAL YEARS AGO IN THIS CITY. THE DEAD CORRESPONDENT WAS THIRTY SIX YEARS OF AGE. HE LEFT HOME ABOUT TEN YEARS AGO AND NEVER RETURNED.

Che Foo, June 7.—3 p. m.—An impression prevails here that a naval battle took place last night in the gulf of Pechit. Passengers on steamers passing the Liao Tieshan Promontory, at the time, did not hear any firing, while reports come from Teng Chow of heavy firing being heard there from 11 o'clock last night until 2 o'clock this morning. Vessels from the Miao Tao Islands, confirm this report and so do the residents of hills in the vicinity of this city who heard the firing and saw flashes out at sea during the night. The fact that the Russians were endeavoring on June 4th to clear the roadstead of Port Arthur of mines indicates an intention upon their part to give battle outside the harbor upon the first favorable opportunity. The Japanese correspondent returning from Taiten Wan says there is a persistent rumor there that the Japanese battleship Yamashiro struck a mine off that port recently and was sunk. Chinese arrivals from Taiten Wan are unable to confirm the story.

Cossacks Routed.
Tokio, June 7.—3 p. m.—A detachment of the Japanese force, which landed at Taku Shan surprised and routed a company of Cossacks on Sunday at Kan Chia Tun, on the Kin Chon road seven miles northwest of Taku Shan.

She Really Did Sink.
Tokio, June 7.—11 30 p. m.—Supplementary reports from the blocking forces indicate that the Russian gunboat which was sunk by a torpedo off Port Arthur, Saturday, was of the Greifshacht type instead of the Giliak class.
Admiral Kataoka, commander of the third squadron, reconnoitered San Shan Tao and Taku Kao. The Chinese say that when the Russian's abandoned Taku Kao they poisoned the water sources. Admiral Kataoka is investigating the charge.

Planned Combined Attack.
Che Foo, June 7.—4 p. m.—Preceding a sea attack on Port Arthur last night the Japanese apparently made a determined effort to advance on that stronghold by land.

A Chinese junk which left a point three miles south of Port Dalny, early Monday morning, has arrived here. She reports having heard firing north of Port Arthur from seven o'clock Monday morning until two o'clock that afternoon, by which time she passed out of hearing distance. It would appear that the Japanese planned a land and sea attack on Port Arthur yesterday. The Russians on seeing this sent their fleet out to give battle. The result is not known.

The above despatch would seem to confirm the despatch previously received at Che Foo today from the Associated Press correspondent at Teng Chow, Shan Tung Peninsula. The correspondent said there was firing at Port Arthur last night, beginning at 11 30 o'clock and continuing for several hours.

The above Che Foo despatch also confirms the report brought there by a Chinese junk which arrived during the night. The latter reported that there was heavy firing all day yesterday in the vicinity of Port Arthur.

Vladivostok, Monday, June 6.—All is quiet here. It can be stated that Port Arthur is abundantly supplied with provisions and munitions of war. The bulk of the supplies now there was sent from here before communication was cut off.

Vladivostok was not weakened by sending the supplies and there is plenty of everything remaining here except sugar. Kerosene also is scarce among the civilians, but the quantity on hand is adequate for the needs of the garrison. Trade with the interior is improving. A train of ten cars laden with miscellaneous goods is despatched daily. The railway is open, and the traffic in ordinary freight is considerable.

Much excitement has been caused by the reported discovery of gold in the vicinity of the Amur river. Several hundred prospectors have already gone to the locality and others are starting. Mail advices from Liao Yang say the last ambulance train to arrive had on board, among other wounded, a Japanese prisoner whom General Kuropatkin took particular care to single out and compliment on the fighting qualities of his competitors.

A Russian soldier who was badly wounded at Turenchen has received a medal for an exploit performed by him during the fighting there. He returned to his uninjured gun which could not be removed when the Russians withdrew and disabled it as the Japanese were coming up. He received a number of bayonet wounds but succeeded in making his escape.

Has Cleared Channel.

Tokio, June 7.—11 30 a. m.—Admiral Togo has succeeded in clearing the channel leading into Allenwan. He began locating mines on June 3rd, and since then he has found and exploded 41. Yesterday a small steamer was Erie Railway Co. Ordered to Lower Tracks at St. Johns Ave.

Fire Works Ordinance Modified and Passed—Ordinance for Year's Tax Levy Passed—Other Matters.

The city council met in regular session last night with all members present.

Minutes of the last regular and of the special sessions were read and approved.

The C. H. & D. railroad company formally made its proposition to the city, by way of written communication to Mayor Robb, agreeing, as it did through its counsel to pay $3,000, or approximately one-half the cost of the construction of a tunnel at the Findlay street opening across its tracks.

The matter was referred to the special committee on Findlay street opening.

The board of public safety requested permission to dispose of one horse and some old equipment of the city fire department. Granted.

Mayor Robb reported the appointment of Willbur Fisk, as a member of the board of health. The appointment was confirmed by a full yeas vote.

The city treasurer reported that he had been carrying special street improvement bonds interest for the Cole street and Lakewood avenue improvements for some time and was embarrassed by reason of legislation to take care of such indebtedness being delayed in the council. He contended that this was not good business policy and urged that action on the assessment ordinance be no longer delayed.

The clerk reported the mayor's veto of the resolutions for the proposed paving of West and Elizabeth streets, the mayor's reason for such veto being that the improvements could not be made without increasing the tax rate in the city.

In response to inquiry of Mr. Krauss the chair stated that in its opinion, the cost of maintaining the two streets in their present condition would be no greater than the city's portion of the cost of the proposed paving.

The engineer reported that the cost of the two proposed improvements would be $7,000 and would necessitate a tax levy of about one and four-tenths mills in ten years.

Dr. D. W. Steiner was called upon by the chair and he spoke in favor of going ahead with the improvements and declaring them necessary.

Nine of the eleven property owners who petitioned for the paving of Franklin street, withdrew their names from the original petition and the council decided to order the improvement not made.

Petition for a change of grade on south Baxter street, was referred to the engineer and street committee.

Petition for construction of a sewer in south Main street, south of the C. H. & D. railway crossing was referred to the sewer committee.

An ordinance to license transient dealers in goods, wares and merchandise was given its third reading and was passed.

An ordinance to prevent disorderly conduct in the city was passed.

BAD

Weather Spoiled the Parade

Of Maccabees.

Only Five Thousand Marched.

Thirty Thousand Members of Order Are Enjoying the Jubilee Session.

Actual Work of Convention Does Not Commence Until Tomorrow, in Great Special Wigwam Prepared for It.

Battle Creek, Mich., June 7.—Bad weather interfered with the Maccabees Jubilee celebration here today, and as a result not more than 5,000 members marched in the grand jubilee parade.

The city was crowded with people, however, and a conservative estimate places the number of Maccabee visitors at 30,000. Actual work of the convention of the two grand bodies of the order does not commence until tomorrow, when the great camp will meet in a special wigwam and the great hive in the advent tabernacle, the largest church in the city, seating 2,500 people.

The plan to change representation to the great camp by providing for county representatives instead of one representative from each tent is considered likely to be adopted. The proposition to move the Maccabee headquarters from Port Huron, Mich., is not likely to pass, it is said, although Grand Rapids has a large delegation here working for the convention.

The principal executive officers of both the great hive and the great camp are considered sure of re-election, with the possible exception of Great Physician for the great hive for which there are eight candidates.

The clerk reported the mayor's veto of the resolutions for the proposed paving of West and Elizabeth streets, the mayor's reason for such veto being that the improvements could not be made without increasing the tax rate in the city.

The World's Greatest.

Judged by the one true test—that of popular favor and the volume of business done—the world's greatest shoe for women is "Queen Quality." It is not by chance that it is greatest. It is not by chance that over two million discriminating women instantly choose "Queen Quality" shoes above all others. It is the logical result of the combined effort and the great manufacturing ability of a mighty organization, concentrated upon the one single purpose of producing the most perfect, high-grade shoe at a moderate price that the world has ever seen.

This well-directed, ceaseless effort has produced in "Queen Quality" so satisfying a shoe that the public have responded with a demand so emphatic and insistent as to not only maintain but constantly increase its already undisputed supremacy over all other women's shoes.

It sets the fashions. There is no taste that cannot be pleased—no foot of normal shape or size that cannot be perfectly fitted—and no one or occasion named for which there cannot be supplied a correct and appropriate shoe from the "Queen Quality" assortment.

We have the sole right of sale of these famous shoes. We invite your inspection of the new styles.

Fearful Night Expected.

Denver, June 7.—It is reported at the capital that troops from Colorado Springs and neighboring cities will be ordered to Victor before night. Fears that the town will be burned are entertained. Nearly 500 troops are now mobilized and can be rushed to the Cripple Creek district on short notice.

LYNCHINGS

Are Freely Talked of in Cripple Creek This Afternoon.

Cripple Creek, June 7.—Two thousand people are congregated this afternoon at Second and Bennett avenues, Citizens' Alliance headquarters. They are to be addressed by the mine owners and business men and armed squads are searching for several men. Lynching is freely talked of and almost every man is a walking arsenal. The union stores are in charge of deputy sheriffs.

Wholesale arrests of union miners are to be made. Mounted armed men have been sent on a quick march to the extreme northern and southern ends of the district to guard all avenues of escape of the union miners who are to be arrested.

All mines except the Portland, which employs union men, are still closed and will be until after the inquest and funeral of the victims of the dynamite outrage.

W. H. Ross, of Dayton, Ohio, has telegraphed for a description of Ross killed in the explosion, who he believes is his brother.

Company H, Colorado National Guards, is under arms at the army in this city and will be called out should there be any disturbance.

GRAY

Will Be Endorsed by Delaware

For President.

Resolution to That Effect Proposed.

Peace in Great Measure Is Due to Concessions Made by Both

Gray and Anti-Gray Men in Preliminary Caucuses Held Yesterday—Delegates Will Be Instructed for Judge.

Dover Del., June 7.—Indications point to a harmonious democratic state convention. Peace to great measure is due to concessions made by both the Gray and anti-Gray men. Through the efforts made late last night by Andrew C. Gray, of Wilmington, son of Judge George Gray, aided by J. Harvey Whitman, also of that city, and with Water Commissioner Peter J. Ford, of Wilmington, as intermediary, a resolution was agreed to by ex-Senator Richard R. Kenney, State Chairman Willard Saulsbury and other members of the state committee endorsing Judge Gray for the democratic presidential nomination and requesting the six national delegates from Delaware to use all honorable means to secure his nomination.

The resolution was prepared by Mr. Whitman and is the key to the situation. The convention, which meets at 1 o'clock this afternoon will doubtless ratify this action by the formal adoption of the resolution. The platform which will be adopted by the convention will be brief.

The delegates from the three counties met in separate county caucuses at 11 o'clock today for the purpose of selecting the six delegates to the national convention, two being named by each county. With these caucuses began it was stated that the national delegates will be Willard Saulsbury and Peter J. Ford, from New Castle county; ex-Senator Richard R. Kenney and Alexander W. Daly, from Kent and probably E. C. Dukes and other Jno. P. Holland or Col. Wm. T. Records, and Peter J. Ford will be the temporary and permanent chairmen.

It is regarded as a significant fact that China has made representations to Russia on the subject of the interference of the Russian military authorities with the natives of villages in Manchuria. The representations are couched in general terms and no specific instances are cited. The Russian government claims the natives have not been molested except where they have harbored Chinese bandits. The Russian military authorities have been compelled to take severe measures against the Chinese bandits and natives abetting them have some times been punished for giving the bandits aid.

SMITH & NIXON PIANOS.

What a Smith & Nixon Piano is—The Smith & Nixon Grand in an Upright Case is the Only Piano of its Kind in the World.

It has no equal. It has no competitor.

There can be none other like it because its distinguishing features are protected by patents.

It is the only upright piano from which you can get the musical quality of a grand.

The entire secret is in its interior construction. Outwardly it appears the same as any high-class upright. But in its interior it is different. It is constructed upon the same system as the three cornered Parker Grand.

The result is just what you would expect from a Grand.

It has not sacrificed harmony for space after the fashion of the Upright.

The most difficult phrasing and expression are easily produced upon it.

The cause of this perfection of tone and resonance is that the sounding board exactly fits the scale, leaving no margin for deadening influence or flatness.

Its vertical position as contrasted with the horizontal of the Grand, has been acknowledged by experts to be conducive to purer qualities of tone and resonance.

If you wish to purchase an instrument which combines all the perfection of a thoroughly satisfactory piano, you need the Smith & Nixon.

These celebrated pianos are sold only by E. S. Porter & Son, in Northwestern Ohio. Call and examine these beautiful pianos at our warehouse.

LIVED

Long Beyond the Allotted Term of Years

And Was Prepared to Reap the Reward of the Past.

Mrs. Leonard Goodrich, Eldest Sister of the Late Mrs. James Mackenzie Died at Her Home in Wisconsin.

On Tuesday, of last week, at Kenosha, Wis., occurred the death of Mrs. Esther Leonard Goodrich, an elderly aunt of the children of the late Judge James Mackenzie, and who will be pleasantly recalled by the many friends of the family, who met the fine old lady during her stay of six months in Lima, two years ago. In many respects she was a remarkable woman, and her life is summed up all too briefly in the following obituary published in her home paper:

"On Tuesday afternoon, at the residence of Frank Winegar, 409 Exchange street, occurred the funeral services of Mrs. Esther Leonard Goodrich, who made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Winegar for the last 17 years.

"The services were conducted by Edward C. Kunkle, minister of the First Baptist church.
Mrs. Goodrich was probably the oldest resident of Kenosha. There is some uncertainty as to the date of her birth, but the best evidence obtainable sets the date on September 14, 1807, making her age 96 years, 8 months and 15 days. She was born in Granville, Washington Co., N. Y., and was the oldest child of Addison Leonard and Elizabeth Clark, who were buried here.

"Her father served in the war of 1812 and fought in the battle of Plattsburg in 1814. Her paternal grandfather was one of the Green Mountain boys during the Revolutionary war, and fought with General Stark at the battle of Bennington. Her maternal grandfather, Jas. Clark, of Hartford, Conn., fought at Bunker Hill.

"Mrs. Goodrich was the oldest child of a family of twelve children, seven sons and five daughters. The two youngest sisters, Mrs. E. A. Winegar, of Kenosha, and Mrs. Leander Stone, of Chicago, are the only surviving members.

"Mrs. Goodrich has been a widow since the year 1849. She was a member of the Baptist church of Kenosha from 1848 until the time of her death."

TEN YEARS IN BED.

"For ten years I was confined to my bed with disease of my kidneys," writes R. A. Gray, J. P., of Oakville, Ind. "It was so severe that I could not move part of the time. I consulted the very best medical skill available, but could not get no relief until Foley's Kidney cure was recommended to me. It has been a God send to me." H. F. Vorkamp and W. M. Melville.

AN AWFUL CALAMITY.

Louisville, June 7.—On account of the scarcity of crates, strawberry shipping from Louisville and New Albany, which has been something enormous will probably collapse after today. The season is at its height and the crop is the most abundant ever known.

The shipments last night amounted to 31 car loads, aggregating 120,000 gallons, the largest ever sent from New Albany in one day. There will be no more large shipments and thousands of gallons of fine strawberries will rot in the fields, entailing heavy loss to the growers.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In Catarrh of the Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and is made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by druggists, price 75c per bottle. WHERE NATURE SPORTS.

Around the head of the Gulf of Trieste, in the southern part of Austria, and extending across the base of the Istrian peninsula, is a plateau of limestone which presents some peculiar phenomena.

Full grown rivers issue from its side, disappear under other hills, to reappear later at some distant point. Mysterious springs rise through the bottom of the Bay of Trieste, in time of heavy rainfall bubbling up with a violence sufficient to endanger small craft; in the heart of Cherso island, which is in the middle of the Gulf of Quarnero, is the Lake of Vrana. It is surrounded entirely by hills, and lies in a basin said to be forty-five fathoms deep. The level of the water is reported to be at least forty feet below the level of the sea, about the island. It has no apparent affluent or effluent, yet the waters are always fresh and cool. It is believed the lake is fed by some subterranean passage, leading out under the bay from the Istrian Alps, possibly from Monte Magliore itself.

Some distance to the northward is a lake which disappears for weeks at a time. This sheet of water, known as the Lake of Zirknitz, is about four miles long and from two to three miles broad. Villages, chapels and castles are reflected in its waters. Frequently, in July, although not every year, the waters begin to disappear, and in August the bed, fifty feet below the surface at some points, at times gradually appears. From 20 to 25 days are required for the entire lake to be discharged. When the bed is revealed the peasants plant crops of barley, where only a short time before they were drawing their nets. The bed remains uncovered sometimes for many weeks. The peasants gather their barley and hay from the bottom in the meantime. Then, with a rush, the waters return, the basin being refilled sometimes in a period of twenty-four hours.

The limestone which forms the bed is perforated

WEATHER.

Washington, June 7.—For Ohio:
Generally fair tonight and Wednesday.

It is not always a fact that the fellow who claims to have invented a successful air ship is insane. He may have wheels in his head, and still be really balanced.

So little has been heard of late about Dowie, and he has been so long absent from this country that it is probable he wouldn't know his own father were he to meet him.

Dick Yates evidently had never heard of the good results Dock Hall obtained from a deadlock, else he would have prolonged the one in Illinois, for a few years, and during the time limit extension drawn the salary of a governor.

With the rate of taxation which now prevails, and which will continue in this city unless the council and other municipal boards curtail public expenditures, the question of whether it is better to own your own home or rent, will forever be settled in favor of the latter.

The information comes from a reliable source that the change in the date on which Barnum & Bailey's circus will show in Findlay, from July 4th to June 25th, was brought about through notification served on the management of this great show, that all the people in Hancock county were going to Lima, on July 4th.

Roosevelt views with alarm, his prospects for election to the presidency, and to give his waning boom a boost he is urging "Uncle Joe" Cannon to play second fiddle, in the hope that he will accept, after growling a little. The president realizes that he must devise some way of injecting a little bit of enthusiasm into the campaign, and he believes Cannon is the only timor mentioned for second place who can start the fire works.

Gettysburg and elsewhere that liberty is an inherent and inalienable right.
Roosevelt holds in his recent speech at Gettysburg that liberty is only for "the fit." He tells us that "freedom is a gift which cannot be enjoyed save by those who show themselves worthy of it." This is exactly the doctrine of tyrants under the shield of which the greatest crimes against liberty have been committed. But the speech of Roosevelt is very useful in that it points out more clearly than has before been done, the fact that we are drifting rapidly towards imperialism. —Mansfield Shield.

GOOD ADVICE.

While Judge Parker, of New York says nothing politically for publication, his good sense is shown in his remarks recently made to a class of law students. He said:

"Be careful to let nothing happen to injure your reputation in the community where you live. Nothing better can be said than 'his word is as good as his bond.' Lead an honest life, keep your word when you give it and do not ever give a word you do not intend to keep. A man may be more eloquent before a jury than the other fellow, but if the other has a better reputation for character he will outstrip him in the race for honors. If you are faithful to your work, if you improve your time, if you identify yourself with the community where you live, take part in all that's helpful, become interested in it, you will be a leading man in that community and you will succeed."

NOT BREAKING EVEN.

Henry Clews, the Wall street banker, begins his weekly letter, dated June 4, as follows:

"The stock market moves along quietly, hoping for favorable developments. For the time being such hopes appear to be in vain, for the average run of news is hardly of a stimulating kind. Railroad earnings, both gross and net, continue to make unsatisfactory comparisons with last year; complaints of inactivity in trade are more frequent, while demand and prices for iron are declining. These and other signs of business and industrial contraction all serve to impart a listlessness to the stock market. That they did not precipitate a fresh decline is probably due to the fact that present low prices largely discount such development, the large holders having anticipated them months ago. As a result, in this connection it is worthy of note that government receipts are decreas-ing and expenses increasing; so that this year we are facing a treasury deficit. Naval expenditures and pensions are also chiefly responsible for increasing expenses, the Panama project being a special item, while receipts have been diminished by a falling off in customs. Were it not that we now possess a handsome surplus we might be threatened with a reputation of the experiences of 1893."

SAD PLIGHT OF TWO UNIVERSITIES.

With full knowledge of all the tremendous consequences involved, Ohio State University has solemnly resolved not to allow in Ohio Wesleyan University's back yard and Ohio Wesleyan University has pledged itself not to "holler" down Ohio State University's rain barrel. Diplomatic relations have been suspended, mutual declarations of war are impending and it is even said that preparations are being made to lay mines in the Olentangy river and throw up breastworks around the insinuations of learning at Columbus and Delaware.

"The citizen is not fully informed as to the origin of this dispute. Some authorities attribute it to baseball, others to football and still others assert that it dates back to pre-historic ages, when the Indians attending school along the banks of the Olentangy made faces at one another as a matter of social ethics and kept the air full of rumors of the present corporation line of the capitol city and the present outposts of Dr. Bashford's reservation.

Whatever the cause of the difficulty, however, it ought to be settled without actual bloodshed. If there is any place in the world where the principle of arbitration should be accepted without question, that place is such a seat of learning as may be found in Columbus or Delaware. We doubt not that The Hague tribunal will listen attentively to the merits of the present controversy, if only brought to its attention. If Governor Herrick will call an extra session of the legislature and have the matter referred to Washington by formal resolution, we are confident that President Roosevelt will act with his accustomed strenuity, after which it will be only a step to the doors of The Hague.

The present plight of the two universities must not be permitted to become permanent. In the words of General Grant, "Let us have peace."

BULLETIN.

New York, June 7.—Mrs. Nan Paturday, was this forenoon taken before Justice Clarke of the supreme court assistant district attorney was not ready to proceed, the case was ad-

JAPANESE ARTILLERY MARCHING THROUGH SEOUL.

The quiet capital of the Koreans has now become a station of some importance on the Japanese trail northward to the Yalu river and Manchuria.
Otherwise it has ceased to have any national importance. The Korean empire has abandoned his palace and is living quietly in an old residence belonging to a former American minister to Korea. This is due to Japanese pressure, for the latter are anxious to avoid any patriotic outbursts which might embarrass the violent protectors of the poor Koreans. The Japanese artillery shown here afterward decided to present face of Manchuria at the battle of the Yalu. The well-appointed guns, men and horses make a fine showing, and the superiority of the Jap artillery was strikingly displayed in the artillery duel which preceded the Japanese advance on pontoon bridges across the river.

CHILD WAS SAVED
FROM BURIAL ALIVE

After Lying for Thirty-Six Hours In Her Coffin by a Physician Who Noted Her Rosy Cheeks.

Chicago, June 7.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Canton, S. D., says:
After lying 36 hours in her coffin,
Mabel Fearing, the five-year-old daughter of C. M. Fearing has been revived. The child was saved through the intervention of Dr. E. S. Norton, a relative, who was at the house to attend her funeral. Dr. Norton noted the rosy cheeks and unchanged appearance of the child and refused to permit the coffin to be closed. He called other physicians and an effort was made to revive the child. At last signs of returning animation were noted. Half an hour later the stethoscope indicated a return of strong heart action. An hour later the child was sleeping in the arms of its mother. With proper care the child will soon be in an advanced convalescence.

FOURTH VICTIM OF AN INSANE FATHER.

Elizabeth N. J., June 7.—Albert Pouch, 13 years old, who was shot by his father, Joseph M. Pouch, of Roselles, yesterday, died in the General hospital here early today, making the fourth victim of the murderous frenzy of the insane father, who shot the boy and his five-year-old sister, Minnie, just as the police broke into his home, and then shot himself in the right temple, dying instantly. The day previous the man had forced carbolic acid down the throat of his two other children, Lillian and Mamie, aged respectively seven years and eight months, and had added to the work of the poison by choking them, as marks on their throats bore witness.

At a Time When Greek Met Greek.

Victim of an Assault Sues for Damages.

Suit Grows Out of the Collision Between Trains on the Lake Erie & Western and Chicago & Erie.

Peter Zaharopooloo, spelled like his pronounced, is the plaintiff in an action for damages brought against Louis Zaharakos, whom he claims assaulted him on the 27th of May. The petition states that Peter was beaten unmercifully with a piece of iron, being struck a blow in the face which cut his lips and knocked a tooth out. The action is brought by Fess & Rogers.

Claims Damages.

John O'Connell, who is the owner and proprietor of the Erie hotel, has made a legal demand for $1,000 from the Erie railroad, and claims that amount of damage to have been done to his building, at the time of the collision between a Lake Erie & Western passenger train and a double header on the Erie. H. P. Williamson for plaintiff.

Wants His Money.

The same attorneys represent John W. Gorham, who seeks to recover the sum of $56 for labor, and $58 for money advanced to the Co-operative Coal Co., of which he is a stockholder. He says the company is in immediate danger of insolvency and asks the court to order a distribution account.

Boston and Cincinnati played in a cold, raw east wind at Boston, yesterday afternoon, and the result was a ten inning game that was more replete with errors than anything in the sensational line. REMAINS

Of Mrs. Michael Keller Laid to Rest Today.

The funeral services over the mortal remains of Mrs. Michael Keller, which were held at 10 o'clock this morning at St. Rose church, were very sad and impressive. A large concourse of friends were present to show a mark of respect for a departed friend. Rev. Alfred J. Manning offered up the requiem high mass and preached the funeral sermon, which was full of hope and comfort for those who mourn.

The pall bearers were: Victor Gonnella, Julius Callahan, P. C. O'Brien, Chris. Geiger, Jr., Edward Fisher, Thos. O'Byrne and L. Gray. The body now rests in Gethsemani cemetery.

MISSION FURNITURE

Mission Furniture of today was no named because of the similarity in design to the furniture found in old Spanish Missions in California, as well as in Spain, Holland and other European Countries. It is rigid in design, being a reproduction of the work formerly done by means of the adz as a tool, before the days of the finer cabinet maker's tools.

We are showing some exquisite pieces in Mission Styles, in Antwerp finish and covered in Spanish Leather.

ATCHISON GLOBE SIGHTS.

Talk! What an unreliable thing it is! Some singing is like smallpox; pretty bad. We all have lessons enough, but they are not burned in. Some doctors claim to be able to cure anybody who is sick. What is there that silly enthusiasm will not lead some people to do? Many a man could lose his mind without being known as a plunger. Unless you get along without meeting, you are not getting along very well.

Just plain, ordinary stubbornness often masquerades as strength of character. Many people mistake longing to be rich and great for evidence of soul-hunger.

A man isn't a knocker because you say he is. You may be the knocker yourself.

There is plenty going on, but in so many cases, reporters do not dare say anything.

Some one ought to organize a great school of medicine founded on what not to prescribe.

We have noticed that very few unmarried people use the word "slaved" instead of "worked."

No woman likes another woman whom she has caught casting a sympathetic look at her husband.

When you meet a friend who is not looking well, what point do you hope to make by telling him so?

When we see a man who is a dude about his clothes, we feel sorry for the work that falls upon his wife.

It is a question which troubles a woman the more through life: Her heart strings or her corset strings.

It is the opinion of every mother that a boy never loses an opportunity for attempting to break his neck.

How members of different churches abuse each other in private! And how lovingly they hold hands in public!

One good thing about the projecting hats the women wear: "They can't get their faces near enough together to kiss."

It has been demonstrated again that you cannot treat with contempt that which human experience has taught to be true.

That man who is going to get both barrels; if he doesn't come pretty soon, people will think it is a twenty-one, when it does come.

When parents "do" more for one child than for another, the other children never find their memories so poor that they forget it.

Running a lawn mower is a good physical culture prescription for a woman, but the neighbors abuse her husband if he lets her try it.

One of two things is liable to happen to the money a man leaves when he dies; his widow gives it to her kin or else she gives it to her church.

The guiltier a man is, the bigger the lawyer he hires. You can usually tell the degree of a man's guilt by considering the reputation of the lawyer.

Men do not give any "showers" for a man about to be married, but they never fail to stand by him in the storms that come after he is married.

A woman, when she wants to get out of doing something for her friends, wastes lots of time in looking for an excuse, but a man doesn't think he needs any.

This gift of innumerable spoons and knives and forks to a bride is unfortunate; she immediately wants to show how many guests she can entertain without borrowing.

When a preacher is going to be away from home on Sunday, he has as much trouble sneaking away from his congregation as a woman has in getting away from her children.

Here is what happens when you invite a friend to supper to proudly show the first radishes from your garden: "Why, that's nothing," he will say. "I had radishes from my garden two weeks ago."

It is so easy to fool yourself. Willie O'Keefe was on the street at 2 o'clock this afternoon, and a man said to him: "Willie, you will be late to school."

"No," Willie replied, "I am all right; I don't have to be there until half past one."

You often hear how men "talk" about women. Two men were standing on the street today, when a very pretty woman went by. The two men looked at her in a lazy way, and, after she had passed out of sight, one of them inquired of the other, in an indifferent, sleepy tone of voice: "Who's that?"

When a man reads a piece in a newspaper or book about "the pace that kills," he thinks about champagne and actresses, and late hours, and gambling and horse racing, and indiscretions of which he is not guilty; he forgets all about eating too much, and too fast, which kills more people than all other follies put together.

They tell of a green brakeman, lately from the country. He was employed on the Central Branch, and, one evening after dark, when his freight train ran onto a side track, the brakeman began taking off his boots, and making preparations to go to bed. "What are you doing?" the conductor asked. "Going to bed," the brakeman replied; "you don't run your train after dark, do you?"

MINE

Board Meets for What

Promises to Be

The Most Notable of All Sessions.

Important Questions Are to Be Settled by Arbitration If Possible

Whether Men Who Have Been Black-listed by Operating Companies Shall Be Taken Back Will Be Discussed.

Tamaqua, Pa., June 7.—The mine conciliation board met at Lansford, today, for what promises to be the most notable session it has yet held. The board meets for the purpose of endeavoring to bring about a compromise between the Leigh Coal and Navigation Co., and its employees regarding alleged discrimination on the part of the company against union men.

All the members of the board were present with the exception of Mr. Luther, Supt., of the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Co., who is in Europe. His colleagues, Messrs. Connell and Warriner will represent him by proxy, the miners being the complainants will be heard first. Twenty persons, nearly all of whom are miners, will give testimony on behalf of the union. For the company, W. D. Zehner, Supt. of the Leigh Coal and Navigation Co., will give testimony as will several subordinate officials, and in all probability, Mr. Riley, president of the company.

The board will probably be in session for three days. The officers of the United Mine Workers state openly that the question of the reinstatement of the men at the No. 11 colliery, whom the company contends left its employ voluntarily while working temporarily at No. 9 colliery, is subordinated by the question as to whether the company shall be compelled to take back into its employ the one hundred or more men who have been blacklisted, the company alleges because they were guilty of violence during the strike.

DECLINE HONOR.

Grand Rapids, June 7.—Mayor Edwin F. Sweet, has notified Col. C. R. Edmunds, of the Bureau of Insular Affairs at Washington, that Grand Rapids declines to entertain the forty-five members of the Philippine commission. The mayor arrived at this conclusion after having consulted with prominent citizens and after negotiations with the Washington authorities. The difficulty is that the commission was to visit here Sunday, July 3. All of the furniture factories here are closed on that day, and the city generally is in no condition to entertain at that time, as the mayor represented to the bureau. The bureau made no change in the itinerary and Mayor Sweet's notification follows.

TESTING OF A BATTLESHIP.

It is an anxious yet proud moment for the builders and designers of a big battleship when the tests are about to be applied, which are to expose her faults, if any, lay bare her secret failings, and bring to the surface the manifold queer whims and caprices to which vessels, like horses, are peculiarly prone. The skill and labor of many months are about to undergo the ordeal of the most science and human foresight can apply, and a big check is about to change hands.

In view of the fact that one of the most powerful battleships ever launched, the Shikishima, belonging to Japan, may play a very prominent part in the war into which that country and Russia are plunged, it may be interesting to review the trials which this splendid war leviathan underwent before being handed over by the Thames Shipbuilding Company to her purchasers.

A complete staff of artificers, stockers and a small crew of quaint looking, but smart and seamanlike Japanese sailors (who were eventually to work the ship back to the little empire in the far East) stood under orders, prepared for any emergency which might arise, and preparations were made for the first trial, slow speed. After a six hours' run at two-thirds speed this test was pronounced satisfactory, and, as a matter of fact, it is the least formidable of the series in the eyes of interested parties. Then steering enthusiasts experimented with the steam gear which actuates the rudder, performed evolutions at startling angles and pronounced it excellent.

Next day, after the boilers had been carefully cleaned and overhauled, the engines were put at their top notch for speed and endurance, and no doubt during the run—ten miles—the anxieties of the engine room authorities were neither few nor frivolous. But in justice to the British engineer it must be admitted that, while not exactly welcoming difficulties, he is seldom happier than when successfully meeting them.

Meanwhile the drafts of water was being carefully noted, weights and board being verified, for all deficient armament, stores, etc. have been made up in water-ballast and coal. In taking of coal, the experts want to know to a pound how much of this precious fuel, which, by the way, is specially hand-picked and selected, is being consumed to maintain the steam pressure.

THE SHIRT WAIST GIRL AND HER ACCESSORIES.

We have always regarded the shirt waist girl as a queenly luxury, but we are glad now to be informed by a New York fashion authority that "a well-made shirt waist dress of silk is an absolute necessity for any woman who expects to stay in town after the middle of May." Since the great majority of the shirt-waist girls expect to stay in town all summer—for which the men will be duly thankful—we are glad to believe that luxury and necessity applied to the shirt-waist girl are synonymous terms.

There are different opinions about this princess of summer and her accessories, but the editorial view of both is founded upon wide observation and long experience. A pongee gown is not a bad thing, especially when cut bias in a graceful manner. Pongee will wash, which is more profitable than playing the piano and also rarer. Take a pongee gown with a bolero jacket worn over a décolleté guimpe shirred bodice, and you have a costume worth going miles to see. The guimpe should never be boned. A guimpe is like a sardine, much preferable with the bones removed. From The Citizen's standpoint it doesn't make much difference whether this creation is tucked or flounced, rounded or square, hemstitched or jiggered, red, white or blue, if it really suits the wearer and answers the interpretation of the word "smart" as employed by the fashion writers. A gored skirt looks well, but to us always seemed to involve an unjustifiable brutality to the skirt. The collars and cuffs are not to be overlooked. They should be changed occasionally, and when removed, water applied to them. The girdle is also important. It used to be a belt, but now it is a girdle. In our grandmothers' days it was a stomach-er, but that was before the shirt waist arrived to bless the world. Silk linings are sometimes admissible, but for matrimonial purposes the summer girl lined with greenbacks has a long start on her less fortunate sisters. We understand that white will be much worn this summer. This will be convenient for the young woman who has run out of other material. One shirt waist is not enough for a summer, especially in center. Ohio We have such sudden changes here that nature teaches us to imitate them in the matter of apparel. On the average 300 or 400 shirt waists will be quite adequate for the summer girl of 1904.

There are some other phases of this subject which occur to us, but a moderate economy of space requires their consideration at another time. Meanwhile we are prepared to emphasize in regard to the shirt-waist girl what the philosopher once said in regard to womankind in general: "Women are the priestesses of prodestination. It is the spirit of man that says, 'I will be great'; but it is the sympathy of woman that usually makes him so."—Columbus Citizen.

Foreigners are casting British sailors more and more each year from British ships and it is not uncommon to find among British crews only one or two natives of the country. The position is amusingly summed up in this story, related by the Liverpool Post: "The skipper of the tramp steamer Bumping Billy was engaging a crew. 'What's your name?' he said to the foremost applicant. 'Giuseppe Grinolieri,' replied the man. 'Eycalan?' 'Yees, sair.' 'Veery good; step to one side. And yours?' he went on to the next. 'Ivan Ikonoff.' 'Russian?' 'Bolish, sair.' 'Right; step alongside o' Yewseppy. Next man?' 'Wilhelm Zwillangguzl.' 'German?' 'Ja.' 'Very good; over you go. Next?' 'Man'el Oliveria. I Portuguese seaman, senhor.' 'Step over then, Manniwel. Next?' 'John Thompson, sir.' 'What?' 'thunder—what the—what nationality?' screamed the horrified ship master. 'English, sir,' replied the man. For a full half-minute the unhappy skipper stood speechless, his countenance turning from purple to orange and from orange to gray; and then, with a gurgling gasp of 'English, by gum!' he tottered, staggered and fell prone upon the ground."

An Englishwoman traveling in Mesopotamia tells this experience of her party: "The cook came in with a pleasing expression. 'What will you have for supper?' he asked. 'What can we have?' we answered, with the caution arising from long experience of limited possibilities. 'What you wish,' he said, with as much assurance and affability as if he was presenting a huge bill of fare. I knew what one could expect in these places. 'Get a fowl,' I said. 'There is not one left here,' he answered. 'Eggs, then,' I suggested, with the humor of desperation. 'No fowl, no eggs?' he answered with plying superiority. 'Well, we will have what there is,' I said faintly. 'There is nothing,' he answered."

A company of men were playing cards. One of them had but one eye, and a quite auspicious number of trumps. His luck was really phenomenal. At last one of the losers could stand it no longer. "I don't wish to make personal remarks," he said, "or mention any gentleman by name, but I suspect the play of one of the company, and if I find my suspicions justified I'll knock his other eye out."

"I was asked to play before the inmates of an insane asylum by an alienist," said Kubelik, the violinist, "the doctor believing that music was a fine medicine for unbalanced minds. I accordingly accompanied him to the institution, where he introduced me, and I said I would favor my hearers with something gay and happy. The crazy folks were all seated about the platform in chairs, and seemed to be intensely interested. As I finished a very pretty young woman rose and beckoned to me. I thought, artist-like, that she wanted an encore."

"The doctor was about to question her, when she exclaimed: 'To think of the likes of me being in here, and he being at large in the world!'"

"That was the last I ever played in an insane asylum."—Rochester Herald.

Old Brother Cooley is a colored philosopher, but he is superstitious in the extreme. He tells this story: "I once wuz in a house what wuz ha'nted—but I didn't know it. Dar wuz a bright fire burnin' in de room I wuz in, w'en all er a sudden de do' opened, on a man with his throat cut shuck his head at me! Now, I just knowed right well it wuz a ha'nt, en de only thing ter do wuz ter ax him 'In de name er de Lawd, what does you want?'"

"And did you ask him?" "No, suh—Bless God, I wuz too feared dat he'd tell me!"—Atlanta Constitution.

Sued By His Doctor.

"A doctor here has sued me for $12.50, which I owe him," says R. White, of Coacochella, Cal. "At the trial he praised his medical skill and medicine. I asked him if it was not Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy he used as I had good reason to believe it was, and he would not say under oath that it was not. No doctor could use a better remedy than this in a case of cholera morbus, it never fails. Sold by all druggists."

The word "Welcome" is emblazoned on the four walls of the city of Lima today, and there is a warm greeting extended to the host of Sunday school workers who are coming from the most distant parts of the state to take part in the big three-days' convention of the association. There was an advance guard of those prominent in the field registered at the hotels last night, and incoming trains brought hundreds from the north, south, east, and west today. Committees were present to greet the strangers at the gates, and escort them to Trinity Methodist church, where the delegates assembled to make acquaintances and exchange greetings.

No event of state importance has been more generously advertised than the forty-fifth convention of Ohio Sunday schools, and incidentally, Lima's hospitality has been held before the delegates as one of the inducements to bring them together in this respect the citizens have never failed and it needs but a visit to the churches where exercises are to be held, to convince one that preparations for the reception of the visitor have not been over looked. It will scarcely need the formal assurance of the city's chief executive to make the delegates and all who visit the city this week feel at home, as early evidences today were proof that Lima had already been captured.

The enrollment bureau was located at the Y M C A. with W. E. Davis in charge, and to him the credentials of the delegates were presented. After registering their names, they were taken charge of by C. A. Graham and A. S. Craps, who, with a corps of assistants, assigned them to private homes or boarding house which has been engaged in advance for the entertainment of those who represent the towns and cities of the state. A number of bright boys, distinguished by a badge, acted as pages, and conducted the delegates to their places of abode during the convention, and performed other acts of courtesy in helping out the work of the various committees. Rev. Lord had the boys in charge and his efficient corps of youngsters were well drilled in their duties.

The big auditorium of Trinity church was artistically decorated for the services to be held there while the lower rooms were all utilized for other purposes. One department is used for a check room, where all baggage can be left in safety and the Sunday school room has been converted into a hall, where the agents of book and music companies have on display a large amount of Sunday school literature and song books.

The pastor's study was occupied this morning by the officers and members of the state executive committee, who held their meeting there at 9 o'clock this morning instead of in rooms at the Normal as was originally intended. The session was a private one and the conclusions of the committee in regard to matters of public interest will be made known at the convention proceedings.

Other rooms at Trinity church have been set aside for various departments associated with the work. Dr. Robert Cowden is in charge of the normal department; Miss Clara Louise Convention Notes.

Grosjean & Hall have fitted up a pretty window which is attractive when the myriad of electric lights flash their colors at night. The flag with the Sunday school motto is illuminated and the conception is a very artistic one.

There are always amusing incidents on occasions when many visitors congregate in a strange city, but the one in mind is not on the delegate. A late arrival last night was sent with a page to locate a house on Greenlawn avenue, but after nearly an hour's search, both the stranger and the page got lost, and had to telephone to headquarters for a more competent guard.

The Y. M. C. A. building is a public meeting place, and its courteous and proficient officials have given every attention to the city full of guests. President Eudaly at the session this morning called for all who had attended the World's Sunday School convention at Jerusalem, to rise to their feet. There were four in the audience, and to them the pleasant announcement was made that they were to be especially honored this evening at a reception to be given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Jones, on west North street. Mr. and Mrs. Jones have not returned from their trip, having stopped enroute to visit the old home in Wales, but their daughters, Mrs. Gwen Pence and Miss Mary Jones will receive the old world travelers this evening at 5:30.

SALARIES

For June Session Allowed to Teachers.

The board of education met in special session last night for the purpose of allowing the salaries of teachers for June session. No other business was transacted as a number of the members desired to attend the graduation exercises of the training school class, which was held at Trinity M. E. church. A motion was made to allow the June salaries of the teachers, amounting to $2,800 and the clerk was instructed to make out the certificates.

A contract has been made for Italian labor, and they are coming in day bunches, nearly 100 arriving today over the Lake Erie & Western. It will require from six to nine hundred men to complete the work, which will be completed in about six weeks. The gang at this point is now going through the Berryman farm.

Ohio Funeral

Directors Gathering for their 24th

Annual Convention to Be Held in Auditorium in This City.

Elaborate Preparations Made for Entertainment of the Visitors. Manufacturers' Exhibit in Connection.

Tomorrow, at the auditorium, a three days session of the Ohio Funeral Directors' Association will begin. It will be the 24th annual convention of the association and about three hundred and fifty members, many of whom are already in the city, will be Lima's guests until Thursday night or Friday morning. On account of the State Sunday School Convention which is also being held in the city this week, the hotels and boarding houses are all fully crowded and many persons having rooms to rent to lodgers are requested to notify H. W. Bennett, a local member of the organization, who may be notified by either telephone, No. 202. Persons telephoning should also state rates for their rooms in order that the information may be properly reported to the information bureau.

In connection with the convention, an exhibition will be held at the auditorium of directors' and embalmers' supplies. These exhibits are very valuable and will be more or less interesting to the general public and the public is cordially invited to visit the auditorium between the hours of 4:30 and 6 o'clock tomorrow and Thursday evening to view the various manufacturers' goods.

Every effort is being made by Mr. Bennett to see that the visitors are well entertained while in Lima, and he should receive the support of the citizens in general. Tomorrow evening a program of music and elocutionary readings will be rendered by some of the best talent in the city. This program will be followed by a light banquet which will be served by the Ladies Guild of Christ Episcopal church, and on Thursday evening the visitors will be taken to McBeth's park, where manager Smith, of the park theatre will have his company give a production of "The Resurrection."
